Test Criteria				Speed Test 4
Performance test was completed by a third-party document generation solution provider.
All performance test were run on the same server. No other processes were running at the time of each test.
Both software products consumed the same XML data for each test for merging with their Native Template File.
The Adobe templates were designed using Adobe AEM.
The Competitors document templates were imported into DocOrigin Design with minor clean up
Green represents Faster Performance or Smaller Files Size
Red Represents Slower Performance or Larger File Size
